This is just where the story begins,
So get up, pull your head in The pride, the guts, the strength, the will,
Of the youth is born, and we'll never be torn
You'll find us anywhere and everywhere,
At anytime but this time is the time we care

Reach out, sing out "brace your self for the ride you got to hold on tight"
Reach out, and realize, we are the youth this year call out so all can hear Punch your words in the air, we are the youth who care

Seek for, one more lover & friend, wait for it to all begin
With hands up high, we say good bye, to the things we fear,
Come on join in my dear
You'll find us anywhere and everywhere,
At anytime but this time is the time we care,
It's the time we care

This is just were the story begins
The Pride, the guts, the strength,
The will of the youth is born
Seek for, one more, lover & friend
