Outside my window a robin builds a nest.
At last winter's gone away to rest.
Once again the leaves has return to the trees.
I can just feel that soft summer breeze.

There's magic in the air.
Winter disappear, it's summer.

Children will be playing in the park.
Days will be longer till the dark
Nights will be warm with star filled skies.
A perfect setting for a girl and a guy.

There's magic in the air.
Green grass every-everywhere.
It's summer.

[Instrumental]

Don't you know it's summer time... (Time) (Time) (Time)
And the livin' is easy. Oh, so easy.
Everybody sing summer time... (Time) (Time) (Time)
Now that summer's here there be million things to do.
Vacation near or far, whatever pleases you.
Melvin: Summer is the happiest season of them all.
So everybody get together and have yourselves a ball.

There's magic in the air.
Green grass every-everywhere.
It's summer.
Oh

There's magic in the air.
Green grass every-everywhere.
It's summer.
Woo

It's summer time. (Magic in the air, green grass everywhere)
Oh, it's summer.
Take a look around you.

It's summer time. (Magic in the air, green grass everywhere)
Oh, it's summer.
Hmm
It's summer time.
