JUST ONE LAST LOOK

WRITERS LAMONT DOZIER, BRIAN AND EDDIE HOLLAND

Stop right there
Let me picture you in my mind for the last time
Soon you'll be walking out of my life
Let me gaze upon you for the last time

I need something to hold on to Something to carry me through
All I need is one last look before you go
So I'll have memories wherever I go
One last look before you're gone
So in my heart you'll live on and on Just one last look before we part
So memories of you will fill my heart
Let me remember my whole life through
'Cause my happiest days, I've spent with you

I remember your eyes, that was my treasure
Your tender lips that brought me pleasure
Oh, loving you, I don't regret
And all these things I don't want to forget
Now, being without you will be hard to do
But I want, I want what's best for you
I'd rather see you happy with someone new, baby
Than to bring, bring sorrow to you
As you leave, if you see tears in my eyes just keep on walking
Don't you worry

'Cause these tears you see, are tears of joy
The joy of loving you and knowing you loved me
It's given me enough happiness, so true
To last my whole life through
Just one last look before you go
Let sweet memories overflow
So the thought of you will live on and on Long after, after you're gone
If I never see your face again
Never feel your embrace again

The happiness I've known with you
Will stay with me, baby
My whole life through
Just, just one last look before we part
Just one last look to fill my heart
Just one last look...
