"My Christmas Tree"

there's a christmas tree in a window frame just inside my door but my christmas tree doesn't look the same as it always has before there's just one lonely present beneath my christmas tree cause the best little present a guy could have has gone away from me

oh my christmas tree isn't very big in fact it's kind of small oh it's funny when she'd pick them out they'd always seem so tall the light doesn't seem so bright this year it's hard for me to see the smile that made my christmas right
has gone away from me

i have been so lonely since you left me all alone all i want for christmas is my baby, my baby back home oh my christmas tree is so sad and bare my roon so big and cold oh they wish me happy new year but the new year's already old there's no, no little angel on top where she used to be cause the angel that made my christmas right
cause the angel that made my christmas right
cause the angel that made my christmas right
cause the angel. . .
