Running away sure ain't gonna help you

Oh girl why won't you talk to me on the phone
Every time I call you disguise your voice and tell me you're not at home

And girl this cold shoulder you're giving me
I don't understand

Could it be that you've already got yourself a man
If not

Running away sure ain't gonna help you
I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get now
Running away sure ain't gonna help you
I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get

Could it be, could it be
That you're afraid of me
If so I never recall giving you a reason
You know how much I love you
