Remember me the one who heard your cries & reached out & dried your eyes Remember me the one who found you and wrapped all my love around you When you were all alone and all your dreams were gone
When you had nothing but a tear stain face I took you in (Remember me)
Now your broken wing has mended and your need for me has ended
(Remember me)
Now you say you must be free and you wanna fly away from me
You were lost yesterday, gave you my tomorrow Now you're leaving me in sorrow and your telling me your sorry but, babe, Sorry is a sorry word after all I've done for you, baby Sorry is a sorry sorry word when I need a love that's true
You're telling me we're through baby but listen
How could sympathy be all you feel for me
After all the sweet love I've given you given you baby Girl you walked away with the best of me
The love I gave to you, you've given to someone new And sorry won't end this misery Remember me who took your hand and held you up and made you stand Remember me the one who's love you shared the one who really cared Now you've turned away from me saying that you're sorry that it had to be baby Sorry it had to be but Sorry is a sorry word after all I've done for you
You say you're sorry (Sorry is) Sorry is a sorry sorry word (when I need) when I need a love that's true baby Sorry... Sorry, Sorry is a sorry word but it won't mend, no it won't mend my broken heart Sorry sorry.....
