

Memphis Bleek

"Pain In Da A*s Intro"

Visit "Pain In Da A*s Intro" on MotoLyrics.com

Ever Since I Was A Little Kid I Wanted To Be Part Of Roc-a-Fella
I Mean For Me It Was Bigger Than Being President Of The United States
To Me It Meant Being Somebody In A Neighborhood That Was Full Of Nobodys
They Weren't Like Anybody Else I Mean They Did What Ever They Wanted
They Could Double Park In Front Of A Hydrant Nobody Ever Bothered Giving Them A Ticket In The Summer
When They Shot Dice All Night Nobody Ever Botherd Calling The Cops I Mean To Us Living The Way Was Nuts To Us Those Goodie-Good People Who Work Shitie Jobs For Bumb Paychecks Worrying About Their Bills Taking A Subway To Work Everyday Were Dead I Mean They Were Suckers They Had No Balls If We Wanted Something We Just Took It If Anybody Complained Twice They Would Get Hit So Bad They Would Never Complain Again It Was Just Our Routine We Never Even Throught Twice About It Okay Are We Loaded

Visit Memphis Bleek page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.