Taken from my sleep to be tormented at night.
I am completed for this resurrection fight.
Alienate this monster from inside,
And I'll show you what this world is really like.
An impetus wave of hatred closing in.
Exterminate your friends
A blazing arrow aims for revenge
Screams from under your skin.
Cauterize my heart so I can never love again.
Never love again.
Monsters
I'll capture this moment and hold it to the end
Now that the life in me has waved goodbye, goodbye
Now that the light in me has waved goodbye, goodbye
Hey, what do you see?
Hey, what did you say?
Hold on, Relive, We will not
Breakdown
These words are better left unsaid.
If you've got a throat I've got a knife
