Hot metal and burning oil
A million moving machines
Angry youth leaves 20 dead
A semi-automatic routine
Crack babies and crackwhores
Another car bomb downtown
The politicians are still smiling
With anthrax letters floating around

The Christian army kills the Muslim
While the Muslim kills Jew
The leaders of this world
Are dropping bombs because they've
Got nothing better to do

We're on the redline. No turning. Until we tear it apart
We're on the redline. No stopping. Until we tear it apart

Crossfire in a playground
Killed a mother and son
But everyone's distracted
With the war that's begun
They fortified the borders
Airlifted in troops
Reprogrammed all the missiles
To take off in groups

The Christian army kills the Muslim
While the Muslim kills Jew
The leaders of this world
Are dropping bombs because they've
Got nothing better to do

We're on the redline. No turning. Until we tear it apart
We're on the redline. No stopping. Until we tear it apart

Overpopulation
Domination
Evil corporation
No stimulation
Public sedation
Failing education

No cooperation
Fighting nations
Misinformation
Student demonstration
Infant mutilation
No vaccination
Police investigations
Military operations
Guilt by association
Your eternal damnation
No salvation of frustration in the legal litigation
Civilization desperation
Taxation irritation
Inflation of mutation
Deviation
Regulation
Violation
Starvation
Radiation and contamination
Humiliation
Inebriation
Assassination
Deforestation
Eradication
Abomination
Realization of this revelation

We're on the redline. No turning. Until we tear it apart
