I'm sure that you're writing it off
And if you're fighting with the idea
That the meaning is lost
Then you should stop by
Maybe drop me a line
And if it's not too much to ask
Then maybe save me some time

'Cause I can't spend a day
Without a thought about you
And the things I'd like to say
I just can't make come out
When your eyes meet mine

We're standing in the fading moonlight
Making the most of the brightest stars in the sky
And of you at my side
We're standing in the fading moonlight
Making the most of the brightest stars in the sky
And of you at my side

I've been sitting counting the days
From the moment that we met
Until the second you stayed in my arms
So sure that we knew who we were
In the sense of what it meant to feel completely secure

'Cause I can't spend a day
Without a thought about you
And the things I'd like to say
I just can't make come out
When your eyes meet mine

We're standing in the fading moonlight
Making the most of the brightest stars in the sky
And of you at my side
We're standing in the fading moonlight
Making the most of the brightest stars in the sky
And of you at my side

(4x)

We're standing in the fading moonlight

Making the most of the brightest stars in the sky
And of you at my side
