I've seen these walls move
I've seen these walls breathe
There is no illusion to these scenes,
Animated cages, hostage screams,
Screams
I've seen these walls move
The past has stains that have
Coated the surface of this place
Abyss shows the dark of it's face,
And as night comes,
Their day is new.
Now these walls have breaths to whisper to you
And we will never be alone now.
I've seen these walls move
I've seen these walls breathe
There is no illusion to these scenes,
Animated cages, hostage screams,
Pay close attention to everything
Because there is no illusion to any of these scenes.
