Well they look at you they want something
And they look at you you've got nothing to give
So why not give in

And you use to have dreams
Well you use to want things but you could never
Keep yourself clean, no
Keep yourself clean, no
Keep yourself clean
And I guess that after awhile well I just stop trying

Well you use to be out there on your own
And you use to believe in me I know but now
You have no faith in such things

And I use to believe you were somebody
Well I use to give a damn
But you could never
Keep yourself clean, no
Keep yourself clean, no
Keep yourself clean
And I guess that after awhile well I just stop trying

Well, you just can't keep clean
No you can not keep clean
You never could keep clean
And I guess that after awhile well I just stop trying
