Since the West Coast came calling, I've been waking up early

Yeah, yeah never have I been more climate sensitive God damn, I can't quite decide how I feel when she's satisfied

The thought of space owns me
I'm still amazed
I said it's something out, out, out on the parkway

Now and then, I'll recall a dream
If it's not bedroom politics, then it's smoke ride philosophy
I already know
A capitalist told me
So do you still think our time is money baby?

It's time we make the move and map ourselves the boundaries
One by one, wave goodbye
We leave this dying planet far behind
Kids say "Hello"

Run to the sunlit new day Enjoy discussing over lunch out, out, out on the parkway

I hope I make you proud
I'm the best at fun things
I always win
That is, unless I'm losing
I want to be a star and one of clout
But mostly, the coolest kind of crazy
