Come daybreak in the morning, I'm gonna take the dirt
road home
Woo, soon daybreak in the morning, I'm gonna take the dirt road home
'Cause these Blue Monday blues is 'bout to kill me, sure as you're born

Well, this man pitches a party, every first of the week
I can't cross the floor for other people's feet
Come daybreak in the morning, I'm gonna take the dirt
road home

Well, I went to my kitchen, intendin' to eat a bite
The table was crowded from morning till night Come daybreak in the morning, I'm gonna take the dirt
road home

(spoken:
All right, Little Son Joe Yes, I know, keep on playing I'll come home)

Hey, now I turned around, aimed to go to bed There's four at the foot and six at the head Come daybreak in the morning, I'm gonna take the dirt
road home
