Sometimes I don't know what to do.
I never realized that it was so hard for you.
But you forget you're the cause for all the pain.
So I ain't gonna take a single cent of the blame.
So quit trying to act like you're the one really hurt.
Because your the one who treated me like a total piece of dirt

I can't believe how you are right now,
It's not so hard to see it somehow,
You crushed me and you broke the vow,
I hope that you're happy now.

So my friends keep telling me..
You're already with someone, that's just great.
That's really pitiful... Because it's only been four damn days.
Since we've been apart, you've lied to me and my heart.
And as for me, I'm not taking it as well as you can see.
So since you obviously don't care one single bit,
I hope your heart gets torn into bits.

I can't believe how you are right now,
It's not so hard to see it somehow,
You crushed me and you broke the vow,
I hope that you're happy now.

I can't believe how you are right now,
It's not so hard to see it somehow,
You crushed me and you broke the vow,
I hope that you're happy now.
