I can tell by the way you shake your hands
It's like an icebox in here
And I can see your breath

And the way that the bright lights hit her face
It sends the boys into fear
Yeah, she can drive them wild

How we gonna be ourselves again
When I can never let this night life end
I can see her start to whisper to her friends
They never told you

Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious
Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious

I can tell by the way you move your feet
It's like a dance floor in here, and I can see your breath
And the way that the bright lights hit her face
It sends the boys into fear
Yeah, she can drive them wild

How we gonna be ourselves again
When I can never let this night life end
I can see her start to whisper to her friends
They never told you

Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious
Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious

And I can see your breath

Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious
Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious
Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious

Don't stand too close to me now
'Cause I am contagious
