Hey

Something better gives you chills

This one's for all within range

Single motives start to thrill

We're here to ransack your brain

Ransack your brain

And all the things you've heard before

Will come and go, they'll never be the same

And all the things they've said before

Just cross them out, they never want to change

Never want to change

And this dead little city is keeping me cold

And this dead little city has swallowed me

Watch the lights come up for good

God help you, keep it alive

'Cause once the room begins to move

You're on the floor, just keeping time

Just keeping time

And this dead little city is keeping me cold

And this dead little city has swallowed me whole

And this dead little city is keeping me cold

And this dead little city has swallowed me

Make lives into simple verse

We'll take the lives and we'll make them worse

I see the kids that you emulate

It doesn't matter if it sounds the same

And all the dreams that you pushed aside

Reconsider that 9 to 5

When all the music in the city burns

We get a laugh as the tables turn

You're just the same as the first

Yeah, you're just the same as the first one

You're just the same as the first
Yeah, you're just the same as the next one

And this dead little city is keeping me cold
And this dead little city has swallowed me whole
And this dead little city (you're just the same as the first one) is keeping me cold (you're just the same as the next one)

And this dead little city (you're just the same as the last
one) has swallowed me
Yeah
