wasting away hanging on to a feelin isnt the way that i want to be breathing gotta work up the nerve to let go theres no word just a notion in play wanna be love today in the land of the living one stop shopping baby come and get it fire in a fury
you better believe the time has come today is the day im moving up its not the end its a new mutation
be love im leaving the fold and their exclusive dealings i wanna be love i dont need a faith healing mother nature is changing the world screaming out like a big hurricane revolution is ready for those who can feel it

its not the end its a new mutation
be love
its not the end its a new mutation
its not the end its evolution
be love
