Travelin' girl run away
Wanderlust to kill the pain
You thought my love would save your soul
You feel apart you left me cold

What was sweet is now a sour taste... oh yeah
What was love now is laid to waste.... oh yeah

Sweetness, Sweetness, Sweetness
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back to me?

Your wine soaked cries and cocaine lies
The broken dreams in your bloodshot eyes
I pine for you
I need you so
I fall apart when you go

Distilled in the driving rain.. oh yeah
When you gonna come back again ..oh yeah yeah yeah

Sweetness, Sweetness, Sweetness
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back
Sweetness, Sweetness, Sweetness
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back to me?

Without the will or know-how, where will you go now?
Without the will or know-how, where will you go now?

Sweetness, Sweetness, Sweetness
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back
Sweetness, Sweetness, Sweetness
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back
When are you comin' back to me?
To me? To me?
