I'm over my head, I'm in too deep
The hours getting late and it's time to leave
I'm missing you before you're gone
Don't understand what's in my heart
I look at you and don't know where to start
Should I let it show that somethings changing
Cos it's feeling so right
That I hear myself say

Chorus

You don't have to go home tonight
Stay until the light of day
Keep this fire alive
Lay your heart next to mine
You don't have to go home tonight
So hard to go our separate ways
So stay right here
You don't have to go

There's a cool breeze blowing
And the curtains swaying
I kiss your lips and you touch my face
Is this real or am I dreaming
I wonder what you're thinkin
I can't tell
If it's about tomorrow
It'll fix itself
Cos I don't want to lose this feeling
When I look in your eyes
I hear myself saying
Chorus

There's no hurry, I only want this moment
Want this moment to last
If you believe in love the same way I do
Maybe this is a chance
You don't have to go

You don't have to go home tonight
It's so hard to go our separate ways
You don't have to go
