I was down and alone,
I had nowhere I've known in.
Till your love came along,
I was lost in my ruins.

But now I wake and I rise up,
And I face another new day.
Feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day
Calls on me, calls on me.
Another new day
Feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day, wont slip away.
No way.

I had no sunshine,
There was only rain.
I had rocks in my bed,
And pillows of pain.

But now I wake and I rise up,
And I face another new day.
Oh, feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day
It calls on me, calls on me yeah.
Another new day
Feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day, won't slip away.

I can fall in your eyes,
As I wake and I rise up.
And I face,
Another new day, oh feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day, calls on me, calls on me.
Another new day, feeling like I'm born again.
Another new day won't slip away.
Another new day, another new day.
