baby i know your hurtin' and im so sorry for what i did to you i cant take it back but ima let you know how it is...

i wish i would of told you earlier what happened i couldnt swallow my pride (yeah) and as crazy as you heard it from somebody else and now your asking me why dont know why i did that to you i swear i thought you made me complete sorry i made you look like a fool but i needed someone here with me why werent you there when i needed you by my side why werent you there when you made everything so right

why werent you there cuz it hurts like hell to know that were through but finally im telling the truth

i wish this situation wasnt so complicated but you deserve to know (ohh) one thing lead to another started thinkin about us then i couldnt do it no more

why werent you there cuz it hurts like hell to know that
were through

this is also sad and I cant take It back and to see you cry makes me feels so bad i wish i could take this big mistake make it go away but its too late now

(my side)

right (ohh ohh)

why werent you there cuz it hurts like hell to know that were through (were through)
but finally im telling the truth

right (ohh)

why werent you there cuz it hurts like hell to know that
were through but finally im telling the truth (ohh) but finally im telling the truth...
