Crawling in my brain
Sleeping in my nose
Eating lettuce leaves and drinking all my soda
Caterpillar
Trying not to step on him
Cleaning up his guts
Red and yellow, red and orange, and green and yellow and purple
Waiting for your wings
You're tired of crawling in the dirt
It's no fun being on the ground
The pill bugs are always rolling
Into you
Caterpillar
You are in us all
Careful not to fall asleep
On the playground swings again
The mantises are praying for you
And the earthworms simply adore you
Eating up the colors
That you'll one day wear
When you fly
