Hold this in your mouth
Snowflakes and pictures of falling in love
Children who are singing
You can believe in this
All your roses all your sighs
Fall under blankets of sleep
Button up tie your ribbons
And let us be on our way
The ground won't hold these feelings down
I know, I know
And all of the world wants to swallow our eyes
Pray the stars don't keep us up tonight
Shadow, I am keeping you near me
I am sewing hearts
To your sleeve
You can believe in this
All your roses all your sighs
Fall under blankets of sleep
Button up tie your ribbons
Before the snow gets too deep
All your roses all your sighs
Fall under blankets of sleep
Bury me bury me
So far under thorns and dead leaves
The ground won't hold these feelings down
I know, I know
We can rest with the leaves up over our eyes
And the stars won't keep us up tonight
