"Moon Queen"

I am the Moon Queen
Tired of the star's scene
Still afraid of the dark
And he is the sun thing
Afraid to make the dark sing
Still too hot to kiss
We don't know how we got up here
I'm so cold and dusty I can't taste the air
And I know he's tired of being too hot to kiss
I am the Moon Queen
Brightening your evening
You can take me out tonight
And if there were two queens
One to make the dark sing
I would be the spotlight
Yes I think he's the bright and lucky one
The orange peel on my tongue
And I know the darkness can be a friend
Dark can cover the holes I'm falling in
It's so cold but he'll never worry
Cause he's too hot to kiss
