So many men, so little time
So many men for Me & My
So many men, so little time
So many men for Me & My

It's morning, I open my eyes
And everything's still the same
I turn to the guy who stayed last night
And ask him: What's your name?

This seems to happen more and more
I love those men one and all
Each new one I meet
Makes my heart beat fast
When I see them so strong and tall

*So many men, so little time
How can I lose?
So many men, so little time
How can I choose?

20-40-60-75-95-100

They tell me I'm up to no good
I should just settle down
But I don't wanna stay with just one man
I want a set of "hots" around
Feels like heaven every night
Being here with someone new
A physical thrill, a beautiful smile
And wonderful muscles too

*Repeat

So really who cares about love
Who wants their freedom taken away?
For 52 weeks of every year
There's a new man every day

It's too hard a choice to make up my mind
So many men can turn on my light

I don't want true love, I don't want brains
Just give me their bodies tonight

*Repeat
