"Bye Bye Baby Blue"

Visit "Bye Bye Baby Blue" on MotoLyrics.com

She looks a part of yesterdays modern girl
Another lover caught above her social world
A simple women she's not Sophisticated she's got
She doesn't want to be too ordinary

Hello lady driver
Bye bye baby blue
Put love under pressure
See what it can do

She didn't care as the years kept crashing closer
To a serious situation getting worse
If life had been unkind
Her beauty beaten blind
She didn't want to hurt anybody

Hello lady driver...

And if I dream I have to dream of something
That's doesn't mean I have to dream of you
The stains on my bed
Like the blemishes you left
Are all that reminds me of you

Hello lady driver...
