If you really saw the only girl I know
I have to dream a love affair
Like the vacantness that always hurts my flesh
I have to dream a love affair

Dream - I can only dream
Dream alone - you're not there

I have to dream a love affair
She's the sweetest girl in a changing world
I have to dream a love affair

Dream...

With the body of eve and the clothes you wear

Dream...
