"See That Girl"

Wake up screaming
In the middle of something wrong
I'm always waiting for a taxi
Just to take me back home

It really doesn't make much difference
Everything I say makes no sense
I'm happy just as long as I can see that girl
Bop a dad, a da, a da

So boys will be boys
When they haven't got nothing to do
You're flawed I'm bored naive
We haven't a clue

It really doesn't make much difference
Everything I say makes no sense
I'm happy just as long as I can see that girl
Bop a dad, a da, a da

I wake up screaming
In the middle of something wrong
