You are a leader
You must be a spiritual healer
Oh no probably not

You are a teacher
You must be a wonderful creature
Oh no probably not

But all that i wanted
From you was alot

It's an airport early morning
You need somebody else
In love we trust

You are an artist
You must know the secrets behind this all
Oh no probably not

But all that i wanted
From you was alot

It's an airport early morning
You need somebody else
In love we trust
And it came without a warning
It's messing with my health
In love we trust

But we probably shouldn't
No we probably shouldn't
We possibly shouldn't
No we probably shouldn't
Probably shouldn't
