They say the story, hope it don't bore ya,
About they day I was a horse,
He said I've been a mourning and a better be a
comming,
And he changed into a horse.

Where'd he go?
I don't know.
What's he on?
Something strong.
What's it?
Doing shit.
I think I'm on a muther fuckin trip.

He walks his house with a big bad mouth,
And he swallowed all my friends,
So I let him in and rescued the gang,
And he started up again,

He got kinda thinking and he started up a shaking,
And fell on the bed,
Forgot his swings how everything had changed,
Thought this might never end.
