Turn the torchlight down
I'll be right behind your back
Better watch the stairs

Get the fireworks packed
Put the carton to the front
On our silent drive

So we counted five
Different sounds that exploded with essencel overdrive
While we sat and smiled
Looking up to observe how these rockets pulverised

And you know it's alright
Cause you can't get there otherwise
To go up with the lights I did not even recognize
That it's our precious time we can spend as we like
And belong to belong to a structure to memorize

And you know it's alright
But we're just out of time
Simply once in a while
Grab the gear we're going home
We're going home
