You are just a burden, would you please leave me alone?

I'm so sick of sitting here waiting, by the telephone
I am leaving today and there is nothing you can say,
So baby won't you get me (alone)

I'm just another name, on your list
But when you get to mine you suddenly stop
First you get hot and next you start to stutter,
You quickly bat your eyes and then you start to shudder
And all of this for what you did to me,
Ruined me for weeks and I know your not sorry
Now your calling saying "let's do it again," and now I'm saying screw you, because,

You are just a burden, would you please leave me alone?

I'm so sick of sitting here waiting, by the telephone
I am leaving today and there is nothing you can say,
So baby won't you get me a drink? (alone)

I'm the world's greatest actor, make you think I'm something that I'm not
And you're the same stupid whore,
Don't think that I forgot
I bet that you think you ruined me for life,
When really I just faked it for that night,
So check in the back seat of my car,
There are your best friend's panties and she told me that,

You are just a burden, would you please leave me alone?

I'm so sick of sitting here waiting, by the telephone
I am leaving today and there is nothing you can say,
So baby won't you get me a drink? (alone)

You're too good to spend your teens between the sheets

And your reputation makes it so that I can't sleep
You'd better get used to being on your knees again,

Because thats the only way you're gonna please him
So just shut your mouth tonight,
You'll never understand that you were never right
I have a feeling that you planned it out this way,
And I'm a sucker for every word that you say
I don't wanna stop babe I just wanna know
I don't wanna know, I don't wanna know

You are just a burden, would you please leave me alone?
I'm so sick of sitting here waiting, by the telephone
I am leaving today and there is nothing you can say,
So baby won't you get me a drink? (alone)
