Coming up(?) complaining he can't get the blood off his hands
He cant tell the difference between friends and powder fans
Hooked on what they're given so they just won't go away
Give them this umbrella to get back on a rainy day

Shattered man's(?) complaining by the things we shrug
Realise it matters when your heart gets torn away
The doctor thinks he didn't do the things he didn't say Hanging round, looking you can stay in touch now

Each of you complaining about the situation
You wonder what they did so well
Each of you complaining about his chosen vocation
But I'm not dealing with Scum like you

And its just a case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic just Another case of tragic magic
When the dealer remembers more than the man

Not a lot of people have the problems that they do Offload all your troubles they'll come back to you
This ladÂ...Â....(missing lyric (Missing lyric)

Keep on complaining(missing lyric) until your fall asleep
Come along and sing with me
Make everyone ecstatic using a chromatic
Still though no one sings round here

And its just a case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic
just Another case of tragic magic
When the dealer remembers more than the man
When the dealer remembers more than the man
remember your no more than the man

And you know what I'll ask you
But I already no the answer
But they say they call me a chancer

And you know what I'll ask you
But i know what you'll say
You don't take no prisoners with scum like me

And its just a case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic

Just another case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic

And its just a case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic

And its just a case of tragic magic
When you can't remember feeling fantastic
And its just a case of tragic magic
When the dealer remembers more than the man
No no, Remember your no more than the more Remember your no more than the more

Oh it's the tragic magic
You never feel fantastic

best i've got at the moment fill in the blanks!
