I will not be found with a bullet in the head

With a gun in my mouth curled up in my bed

Standing on the ledge looking down at the street

Diving on the people underneath my feet

I will not

I will not

I can hear you calling, but I will not

I know you wanna make me, but I will not

I will not lie me down on the tracks of a train

I will not use a knife to disconnect my veins

I will not close my eyes, I will not shut my mouth

I will not, I will not, I will not I will not

I will not

I will not go insane, I will not be the same next week

I will not go gently into the big sleep

I will not hide

I will not run

You cannot make me

I know what's going on

I will not

I will not

I will not

I will not play dumb

I will not be fooled

I will not be used by any one of you

I will not

I will not, I will not

I will not be a man

I will not bear a cross

I am moving on and you can't turn me off

I will not

I will not, I will not

I will not mind my own business

I will not beg for forgiveness

I will not be embarrassed to piss on all you cherish

I will not, I will not, I will not
