Well I saw her down on sunset road
A dark girl in a long black coat
Well I knew her way back in school
And I can't believe my eyes

That pretty smile that she had is lost
It's been replaced with an inverted cross Tattoos up and down her arms of goats and skulls and five pointed stars...

She's been worshiping the devil
Well who knows for just how long
But now that she's worshiping the devil
Well she doesn't want to hang with me no more

I asked her if she was doing all right
She looked at me as if she wanted to fight
She handed me a pamphlet that read
Come join the church of the goat of mendez

I asked her out for a Friday night
I thought maybe that she'd like to dance
But all she did was go off on a rant
About how Christ is buried in a church somewhere in france

She's been worshiping the devil
Well who knows for just how long
But now that she's worshiping the devil
Well she doesn't want to hang with me no more
She's been worshiping the devil
Well I guess that's how it's gonna be
Now that she's worshipping the devil
She doesn't want to be seen with me

Hell I don't know if her convictions are true Hell now I don't care about what she's trying to prove
All I know is that I still love her
Yes lord I still love her soul

She says she waiting on the day of the beast

I said "hey you can rent that down at video feast"
They got the best horror selection in town
But she just stared at me blankly

She told me to be serious or leave
She was busy spreading her beliefs
Oh I know she'll never be mine
Cause she keeps rambling on about the number nine....

She'd been worshiping the devil
Well I guess that's how it's gonna be
Now that she's worshipping the devil
She doesn't want to hang around with me
She's been worshiping the devil
Lord I tell you that's just my luck
But now that she's worshipping the devil
Her new attitude just really really sucks

She's been worshiping the devil
Well who knows for just how long
Well she's been worshipping the devil all night long...
