Carve inside a smile and be on your way
It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
Look around quickly you ain't got much time
Just empty your pockets Get in back of the line
You'll find that no one here cares what you think
They'll pump you with poison then bleed you dry
You're living for them now until the day that you die
You came here with nothing so nothing is what you'll be
You're just a number Forget your name
It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
Cut off your eyelids There's no time to sleep Forget about your loved ones 'cause they'll never be seen
There's no better days Let go of your dreams
Those before you suffered this way
And those who'll come after will suffer the same
There's no getting out of this age old game
Where you give your life for nothing less
Than slave wages and a life in debt
Where you sell your soul for nothing more
Than a pile of ashes and a hole in the floor
Carve in a smile and be on your way
It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
(solo)
You're just a number forget your name
It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
No longer human Now part of the hive
You thought you could win but you can barely survive
It didn't take to long for you to beg for change
Wasted time praising the elite
Never made you stronger just proved how you're weak
You little fucking puke You really make us sick
Because we gave our lives for nothing less
Than slave wages and a life in debt
We sold our souls for nothing more
Than a pile of ashes and a hole in the floor
Carve inside a smile and be on your way

It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
You're just a number Forget your name
It's a guarantee you won't enjoy your stay here
Welcome to the place where no one cares
