My beds are always empty
If you dont count the ghosts Cause i have those a plenty
And its name is rose
Its name is rose

So dear Rose, is home
the scent of skin
or is home somewhere i've been so i can trace back my tracks i can trace back my tracks

relax in me, in me
should i be wanting it back
i can trace back my tracks
i can trace back
i need some of that wander where my blood dark red some veins
enough said
