"Shirt"

i called to say i made something for you with my bare hands i put it into the mail today give it a week or two i've heard it takes time to cross the sea though note, it took me a decade to write i called to say this is the last time we'll speak i made a pact, in fact, i'm doing the crosswords tonight unroll your eyes

i've always felt you cared much more than you should it's just a soul, the hole is easily covered with dirt i've stained my shirt
