Maintain a perfect picture for a perfect time
Everyone was guided towards the truth
The message of the entire world would rest on the back of me

In the end of it all, it comes down to one or two things
And if you got money
Then I got money
Why would you take credit for what you didn't create?
The mission of three hundred solid

We will be given wings
Explosions in the sunset
Igniting in my mindset
Just follow me into the clouds
Where we lay all of our secrets down
Drop to my knees
While we were given freedom
Never have I gone this far with any help
An honest approach to living
And learning about myself
Well goodbye for now
I'm chasing it down

I've worked so hard
To make this moment mine
You will hear my voice above the rest
I've worked so hard
To make this moment mine
You will hear my voice above the rest

Reminiscing of the days
Where you used to be someone
A shining a spectacle so far from reach
Decades later we had encountered
A final time
I walk in silence passing by
Like a diamond
Like there is no one left
With money to be made
Quit lying to yourself and make the move

Let's get one thing straight man
Yeah you're filthy fucking rich right?
Let's get one thing straight man
All my life I've been trying to Make money mean something to me

All my life I've been trying to make
Make money mean something
All my life I have been trying to
Make money mean something to me

I've worked so hard
To make this moment mine
You will hear my voice above the rest
You'll watch me shine
