She set herself on fire
I was burnt from head to toe
Please dont tell anybody
I cant bare them alone
She says it all for show
Makes me crazy
I didnt really want to know
Im a bleeding heart there's no doubt about it

Oh no Oh no I done it again
Oh no Oh no she's phoned up a friend
Oh no Oh no She's not stopping cause theres no stopping til the tears start dropping again

There's an accident old boy
I lost all self control
Can anybody hear me?
anybody save my soul?
It's far to dead aside
To go on living a lie
I just dont need that bad kind love that strips you from the inside

She says its all for show takes romance breaks it down to the floor Shes got a big black heart theres no doubt about it

Oh no Oh no I done it again
Oh no Oh no she's phoned up a friend
Oh no Oh no She's not stopping
Cause there's no stopping
Til the tears start dropping again

Oh no Oh no she's done it again
Oh no Oh no she's phoned up a friend
Oh no Oh no She's not stopping
Cause theres no stopping
til the tears start dropping again
