Lipstick to her broken smile
I'm sick of being tired
Temptation starts to speak to me
I feel so reconciled
Heartache, to a broken smile
I'm sick of being tired
She'll take you in out from the streets
Only to be a liar

She'll pull you in so close
She'll hold you in so tight
She'll look you in the eyes
She's like the sirens
Pinpoint my every single move
I lay upon her tonight
She'll look you in the eyes
She's like the sirens

Watch out she's gonna break through
Her words are gonna take you
Temptation starts to speak to me
I feel so reconciled
Right now i'm gonna step back
Only to remind myself that
She'll take you in out from the streets
Only to be a liar

If i could hold my breath
I'd do it this time
No words can ever explain
The feeling left inside
I'll say it once, I'll say it once again
Forget my name
Forget my name

She'll look you in the eyes
She's like the sirens
To every step i take
To every move you make
I cannot, i cannot escape
