I'll let you go and light the match
Ignite this room and burn whats left
What's left of you
And maybe, I'll wake up
Shocked in what's left of you

So I'll light the sky
Burn everything in sight
I'll let you go
I'll swear you'll make it out alive
So I'll light the sky
Burn everything in sight
I'll let you go

You're like the medicine that infects me
You're everything that's left, that's left of me
With blindfolds and eyes closed
You wont see the last of me

So i'll light the sky
Burn everything in sight
I'll let you go
This time you wont make it out alive
This time you wont, this time you wont
Make it

I won't
Burn this city alive
I won't
Burn you down tonight
I won't
Kill you now

I'll burn you down like this room
With blindfolds and eyes closed
You beg for sympathy
This is what we call therapy
