Summer's almost here and the evening's getting warm
Screw my head on a different way
Hug my pillow and try not to count the days

Winter's gone away and the mornings aren't so cold
Rub the sleep out of my face
Hug my pillow and try not to count the days
Get your face out of my brain

I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah

Evening's over now and the daylight's on it's way
Empty bottles on the floor
Give it a back beat and try not to lose your head
No, you won't have to pretend anymore

I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I only need my piece of space
I need to breathe

I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah

Now it's time to say goodnight
So sleep tight
