(Verse 1)

(Will I be yours forever?)

When we laid eyes on each other, I knew that you would be my destiny,
Because the spark inside of us had lightened up. I am love struck and it's Rocking my world. Although I am getting butterflies in me, like crazy. Just Telling you how I feel.

Every time you smile at me, it leaves me in a happy mood and you might not Know it, because I don't show it. I shoved myself into this love and I am Glad I did, because I finally found you.

Now that you are mine, I promise to stay.

(Chorus 1)

I've been walking many miles to find you, and now that I got you. I will Never let you go, because I just want to be with you.

(Verse 2)

(Will I be yours forever?)

I won something special in this game and now you have a place in my heart.
Your love is the token of my appreciation.

You are the flame that brings delightfulness to my soul
and this adoration
Feels like a disease, I can't get rid of it.

So in this romance, do you promise not to give it up,
because with you next
To me everything seems magical?

Now that you are mine, I promise to stay.

(Chorus 2)

I've been walking many miles to find you, and now that I got you. I will Never let you go, because I just want to be with you.

(Verse 3)

(Will I be yours forever?)

I got you on my mind, and could you be the person that I am trying to find.
If you are, I won't never let go.

I just want you to know that you're my desire and my love for you is on Fire, and I can't stop chasing. Now that you are mine, I promise to stay.

(Chorus 3)

I've been walking many miles to find you, and now that I got you. I will Never let you go, because I just want to be with you.

If I find you,

(Will I be yours forever?)

If I find you,

(I promise to stay).

If I find you,

(Will I be yours forever?)

If I find you,

(I promise to stay).

I've been walking many miles to find you, and now that I got you. I will Never let you go, because I just want to be with you.
