(Verse 1)

Welcome to the brokenhearted season, where there is no reason to feel Loved. Because you just end up getting hurt, by the person that amuses you.
The caring that you gave is so apathetic, because you are never here to Support me through my struggle. While I cried, the tension has kept Filling, but the degree of this feeling is rising up and I can't take it Anymore.
Why can't it go away and give me happiness today. If it can't, I will find Some way and breakout of this suffering. I will move on and take control.

I don't want to fall for your type again. I should have never spent my
Happiness with you, because I knew you were going to break it in this
Fairytale. But why are you such a heartbreaker.

Love is a heartbreaker, I been through it all. Love is a heartbreaker, but You have to stay strong. The love you think is real is the love that would Never break your heart. But the love that I feel will always be the Heartbreaker of my soul.

Why can't it go away and give me happiness today. If it
can't, I will find
Some way and breakout of this suffering. I will move on and take control.

I just wanted to be with you, but it seems our soon to be happily ever

After, couldn't last forever. So this time, I won't let it get inside of my Head or break me down. I will move on and take control.

(Verse 2)

I was never in a rush to fall back into your arms, so should you be Blushing, because you pushed me to the limit. And now you see that these Reserved feelings are finally spilling out. I got a broken heart and from The start, it seems as if my life is falling apart. But your love is keep Popping me in and out like pop tarts. And it kept coming at me, like a go Kart. Every time I feel it for you my heartbreaker.
Why can't it go away and give me happiness today. If it
can't, I will find
Some way and breakout of this suffering. I will move on and take control.

I don't want to fall for your type again. I should have never spent my
break it in this
Fairytale. But why are you such a heartbreaker.

I just wanted to be with you, but it seems our soon to be happily ever
inside of my
control.

(Verse 3)

I am ashamed of myself for believing that I had a chance with you, I regret For trying to make this true. The feeling of rejection is staring at me in My direction, and I can see that it is reflecting in the mirror of love.
These unwanted affections I felt for you, were overdue
and that made me
Loss you to someone else.

Why can't it go away and give me happiness today. If it
can't, I will find
Some way and breakout of this suffering. I will move on and take control.

(Chorus 3)

I don't want to fall for your type again. I should have

(Bridge)

Since everything that we had, fell apart. I've move on and finally feel Better than ever before. I am informing you my heartbreaker that I don't Need you and I realize this is not what I wanted, from the beginning. But I Will find someone who will always love me, for who I am.

(Chorus 4)

I don't want to fall for your type again. I should have never spent my
Happiness with you, because I knew you were going to
break it in this
Fairytale. But why are you such a heartbreaker.
