(Intro)

Are you ready, to be inspired...

(Verse 1)

(Lets Go!)

Yo, I'm on fire, Someone put it out With the water

The flames are getting bigger, When I play my inspirational game

Because this is my desire, I'm wired, Came out fresh and bless, yes

So there is nothing less, I am such in a hot mess,
Walking to my motivational empire.

(I, I always believe that)

When the moment of dreams is ascending, Open the book, and start the chapter Of what's next,

Let the cloud, float over you With destiny

As you fill the empty pages, With the thoughts Of who you want to be

Because nothing will stop you, From being the best.

(I, I always believe that)

Yes I'm gifted, slightly blessed

About to be lifted up, I'm going into a new direction,
Spitting something real.

It took me many miles, To get where I am at today

If you had a lot of up and downs, Don't let it stop you

From getting there

this is my intention, To step up to the plate.

The hope is flying around, So never forget those who inspired you.

All you did was doubt me, Never gave me a chance To speak my mind

But now, your the one In Disbelief,

Don't listen to what they say, Just place confidence in yourself.

(I, I always believe that)

Can you speculate my wishes, As they sparkle through the light Of the sun

Which is being taking over, By these words you can't justify,

So, never forget those who inspired you.

(Pre chorus)

Greatness is in your heart, Put faith in the words You speak

Your mind is filled With wisdom,

Your thoughts are filled With courage and pride.

(I, I always believe that)

So show your true greater efforts, For what you do and who you are.

(Chorus)

I always believe, before I wish

I always believe, before I fly

I always believe, before I try

I always believe, before I cry

I always believe, before I dream

I always believe, before I fall in love

I always believe, that I will be the best

I always believe, before I spread my wings

(Always believe in yourself, and you will get far).

(Verse 3)

I appreciate who I am, You should too

Do you understand, What is written

With predetermination, I got more pride

Than you will ever have, And it's so far From your expectation.

(I, I always believe that)

Destination is here, So take advantage of it

The time of fate, Is not even close

Yeah when the gate opens, Let your name be known

So, never forget those that inspired you.

Under any circumstances, Never let anyone Take this away from you.

Sometimes you wanna quit, But in your mind You got to keep going.

(I, I always believe that)

Ok, I got most followers In my shadow

They can never be me, That's why they doubting me

Some say the stuff, I spit isn't gonna get me no where,
Well look how much shine I get.

Lately I been trying, To get your attention

So you can understand me, But I know, it aint gonna work

(I, I always believe that)

As you search for something In the sky, That you can be proud of

Let the person, you are Become a miracle

So, never forget those who inspired you.

(Pre chorus)

Never give up, on yourself

Never let anyone, tell you who you are

Never let anyone, bring you down

Never interrogate, my motivation

I hope my words, grab your attention

All you have to do is take a chance.

(Chorus)

I always believe, before I wish

I always believe, before I fly

I always believe, before I try

I always believe, before I cry

I always believe, before I dream

I always believe, before I fall in love

I always believe, that I will be the best

I always believe, before I spread my wings

(Always believe in yourself, and you will get far).

(Bridge)

As I am putting more, Confidence in myself

I will try to be the best, Because I have Achievable success in my near future

So this is all I need

(I, I always believe that)

This would be a dream, Maybe full of imagination

But I am destined, to be something.

As the star is shooting between the light, Many wishes
are fallen,

So through the hands of the beholder, Make it your own.

(Chorus)

I always believe, before I wish

I always believe, before I fly

I always believe, before I try

I always believe, that I will be the best

I always believe, before I spread my wings
(Always believe in yourself, and you will get far).
