Pretty lady next to me, no more tears yeah no more crying
Not too late to start again, keep on moving, keep on trying Too much pain for one life, too much pain for a loving wife Starry eyes have turned to grey, make those clouds all move away

I don't wanna see no more hands falling on me, well
I just think it's time we leave, well
And now you finally cry, years go by you finally cry, well
I just think it's time we leave

Little man has come and gone, poor little boy can't sing his song
Working down at the factory, how come things ain't how they oughtta be?
Well here comes Pop, he sure looks mad, much too mean to call my dad Hey there mom, what did I do? Nothing sweetie, it's not you, well

And I don't wanna hear my little girl shedding no tears, well
I just think it's time we leave, well
I don't wanna dry my little boy's crying eyes, well
I just think it's time we leave

I was twenty years old what could I do Twenty years old when we had you And I don't think you're being fair Still a little boy at heart Running around in her backyard

Little girl is all grown up, she's come to know a loving touch Gotta find the same for Mom, keep that heartbeat moving along Hey there dad, what're you gonna do, you kick in the door and try to break through, well

To get to her you gotta break through me, I ain't the little kid I used to be, well

I refuse to see any more hands falling on me, well
I just think it's time we leave, well
And now you finally cry, without your love I'll surely die,
well
I just think it's time we leave
