Yo I am back again md is on the track one half of the w.o.d are you ready lets go.

Breaking the walls down with the rage of an evil beast that I can't control, because I feel pain and gulit everytime I walk through those school doors, you dudes could talk shit all you want but when thoses lights go out it's knockout time,

I be knocking yo damn lights out from left to right like hey throwing these dudes over the boat oh no I just give them a stroke, when you got those ace of spades just throw them all over the floor because your bodie is gonna be dropping in a minute, so you better get on your knees and bow down to the king of kings.

Bottle popping,

stay bottle popping,

who's bottle popping,

we keep bottle popping out here, u can't see me I am bottle popping,

bottle popping.

Getting money stacking my cash and paper in a rubberband grinding hard to become a star, let yo bodie dance to my song let me see how you do that dance on the floor baby,

I am at new heights new fame new glory and still at the top of my game black jeans black tee with a black and red star, what's up just take it one day at a time because we be acting like fools out here baby, you know how we roll we are five star stunnas five star generals and we are taking over this rap shit hey.

Bottle popping,

stay bottle popping,

who's bottle popping,

we keep bottle popping out here,

u can't see me I am bottle popping,

bottle popping.

They wanna hate on us because we got them gats in our pockets say what you already know, focus yo mind just take it one day at a time you be getting yo ass kick with that 4 inch fist to that gut of yours oh my gosh, doing that purple smoking that green sniffing that crack if you know what I mean get low to the floor, bring it back up drop that booty some more say what selling those tips for a buck like it's nothing, they know what it is give me a hell yeah I be staying fresh to death from head to toe rocking my new kicks all day everyday, hispanic nation that's what I represent uno dos tres viva la raza homie.

Bottle popping,

stay bottle popping,

who's bottle popping,

we keep bottle popping out here,

just bottle popping getting money, that's how we do it bottle popping hey.
