Keep staying beautiful alright and you're just so pretty when I see you but those lips are wonderful like the cheeks of a thousand hearts, and when you are feeling down or crying your eyes out over something just know I am right here by your side all the way, holding these hands real tight so what is it why is this happening to me all of a sudden, and girl you are the last piece of the puzzle that fits right into my life, but nobody doesn't even know I exist anymore now I am dropping tears of sadness.

Breaking me down,

just accept my feeling and emotions so don't ever give it away breaking me down, please just be my friend as we still live on breaking me

down,

do you care about what I say breaking me down, all I ever wanted was to be loved or to get hugs from my peers breaking me down, for some reason I am dreaming and thinking about this moment forever breaking me down, don't keep breaking me down.

Because I can feel that pain coming over me that I once had so your trust and love is what keeps me alive, because this will send a message through your mind then all my life I didn't have friends so just talk or laugh with me sometimes, please just be my friend to the end because I have never felt like this for anyone before.

Breaking me down,

just accept my feelings and emotions so don't ever give it away breaking me down,

down,

for some reason I am dreaming and thinking about this

As I walk pass this girl through the schools hallways she doesn't even notice the expression or mood on my face, when I am looking and staring at her so why don't you give out hugs to me anymore, but before it all happens again I just wanna witness your first touch of love.

Breaking me down,

give it away breaking me down,

down,

do you care about what I say breaking me down,

If you really understand how I feel about ya everyday just let me know and I can't never take her outta my mind, because I'm falling for this girl so hard and her sweet beauty had just cast a spell on me but that's all I gotta say okay.

Breaking me down,

give it away breaking me down,

down,

all I ever wanted was too be loved or to get hugs from
my peers breaking me down,
